Advertiser understands that full payment is due before the printing of the advertisement and if the amount nanced isn't paid on time that a 10% fee is automatically added to the balance of the account. All transactions are nal. Deposits are non-refundable. The only exception to issuing refunds, although not likely, is that if the agency cannot ll at least 50% of the advertiser placements or if the project is never completed.

Advertiser understands that they will see an ad proof prior to manufacturing of the tables. Once the tables are produced, no changes can be made. The advertiser must sign o on the ad proof. By initialing here, you agree to look over the ad proof with full scrutiny and take responsibility for nal approval.

Advertiser understands that once they receive their inital proof that they are able to ask up to 2 revisions. After 2 revisions, additonal fees apply.

Advertiser understands that their 2 years begin at the time of installation of the tables in the establishment and only then.

Advertiser understands that placement of the tables can take up to 60 days from the signed date below but could happen sooner.

Agency reserves the right to reject advertisement of businesses, products or services that could be deemed dangerous, indecent or inconsistent with the agencies values and morals.

Agency reserves the right to move the tables to another establishment upon changes in the initial establishment such as closings, health code violations or if the establishment ceases to conduct it's current standard of business.
